

DISCLOSURE POLICY

AAA requires that participants in this educational program be informed of a presenter's academic and professional affiliation and the existence of any significant financial interest or other relationship a presenter has with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) discussed in an educational presentation. When an unlabeled use of a commercial product, or an investigational use not yet approved for any purpose is discussed during the presentation, it is required that you disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational.

This policy allows participants to be fully informed in evaluating the information being presented. The Program will note those presenters who have disclosed relationships, including the nature of the relationship and the associated commercial entity.

Disclosure should include any relationship that may bias one's presentation or which, if known, could give the perception of bias. These situations may include, but are not limited to: 1) stock options or bond holdings in a for-profit corporation or self-directed pension plan; 2) research grants; 3) employment (full- or part-time); 4) ownership or partnership; 5) consulting fees or other remuneration; 6) non-remunerative positions of influence such as officer, board member, trustee, or public spokesperson; 7) receipt of royalties; 8) speaker's bureau; 9) other. For full time employees of industry or government, the affiliation listed in the program will constitute full disclosure.
